Original Poetry.

GOLGOTHA.

BY [?????]

In the dim and cloudy dreamland,
Far away beyond the sea,
Lies a region dark and gloomy—
Dark as night itself can be:
And a mist for aye hangs o'er it—
'Tis not night, but yet, 'tis dark,
Till the ghostly lights restore it,
Strewn with corses grim and stark—
Strewn with corses of the millions,
Who, with banners all unfurled,
Marched across death's sombre valley,
With a tread that shook the world.

Here the bony hands of soldiers,
Rusted sword, and shattered spear,
Seem to grasp in grim defiance
Of their spectre wand'ring near,—
In a broken, tarnished helmet,
Once of dazzling splendor full,
(The red rust the bone corroding)
Lies a mould'ring shattered skull:
And about these dreary regions,
Huge hyenas hungry prowl,
Preying on the ghastly corses,
While you hear their savage growl.

All the wrecks of former ages
Moulder here on every side;
O'er the dust of ancient sages,
Or a monarch's faded pride.
Here lies all the ancient glory—
All the great of Greece and Rome—
All that thrilled us in their story
From some old worm-eaten tome.
In these regions, wierd and solemn,
Stand old towers clad in gloom;
Broken shaft or crumbled column
Marks, perhaps, some rifled tomb.

And a dense and misty vapor,
Full of pestilence and death,
Ever hangs above this valley,
O'er the awful scene beneath;
While above its shapes of horror,
Ever sailing to and fro,
Birds of prey and illest omen,
Still, forever, come and go.
Ah! I hear them wildly screaming
Far above the sleeping dead!
All their beaks with blood are streaming—
All their talons tinged with red!—

As I gaze adown this valley,
All its horrors multiply—
All its terrors and its death-scenes
Now are painted on the sky;
Fiery serpents flit across it,
Like red meteors in the night;
While the bale-fires still grow dimmer,
And recede from mortal sight.—
Here the slimy reptiles they pass,
All hiss fiercely, tongues of fire,
With their fo[illegible] eyes of em'rald glass.
And [illegible]
A monster grim, gigantic,
With a sceptre in his hand,
On a massive throne of granite
Sits as ruler of the land;
While great shadowy winged phantoms,
E'er obedient to his nod,
Sail about his dark dominions
At the waving of his rod.—
He is monarch of the nations,
That from earth have passed away;
And his name is on his frontlet—
It is written:—"GRIM DECAY."

Here through all the misty cycles
Of the tongueless, dreamy past,
He has held his court of terrors
For his throng of subjects vast;
And a low, and hollow murmur
Ever steals across the air—
'T is the tragic, ghostly whisper
Of curst spirits in despair:—
They are subjects of the kingdoms,
That from earth have long been hurled
To this Hades of the nations:—
The dark tomb of all the world!

Bedford, August 9, 1862.

LARGEST CITY IN THE WORLD.—A very erroneous idea is indulged in by many people in relation to the largest city in the world, many confidently asserting that London, or, as it is frequently termed, the Great Metropolis, is far superior, both in size and number of its inhabitants. But such is not the case. Jeddo, the capital of Japan, is, without exception, the largest and most populous city in the world.

It contains the vast number of 1,500,000 dwellings, and 5,000,000 of human souls.—Many of the streets are nineteen Japanese miles in length, which is equivalent to twenty-two English miles.

A roaring tornado, unroofing houses and uprooting forests, may be less calamitous than a low whisper from the lips of a mischievous person, which has the power to unroof reputations and uproot happiness.

☞A life well spent, a character uprightly sustained, is no slight legacy to leave to one's children, and to the world; for it is the eloquent lesson of virtue, and the most severe reproof of vice; while it continues an endearing source of the best kind of riches. Well for those who can say as Pope did, in rejoinder to the sarcasm of Lord Raglan—"I think it enough that my parents, such as they were, never cost me a blush, and that their son, such as he is, never cost them a tear.

DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING.

The Democracy of Bedford county, will meet in MASS CONVENTION, at the Court House, in Bedford, on MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 1, for the purpose of ratifying Democratic nominations, and re-iterating their oft-repeated pledges to the "Constitution As It Is," and the "Union As It Was," to renew their solemn protest against Abolition and its natural consequence, Secession, and to vindicate the Democratic party from the aspersions falsely cast upon it by Abolition traitors in the North, the enemies of the Constitution and the Union.

Rally, Democrats! Friends of Constitutional Liberty, to the rescue! Come from your farms and your workshops, come from mountain and valley, come ye who in the dark future of our country, must bear the heat and burden of the day, and strike one more blow for liberty and law, for the safety of your homes, the protection of your property, the security of your lives!

"Come as the winds come
When forests are rended!
Come as the waves come,
When navies are stranded!"

Meeting of the Democratic County Committee.

The Democratic County Committee will meet at the office of Hon. W. P. Schell, in Bedford, on WEDNESDAY, the 20th DAY OF AUGUST, INST., for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. A full attendance is requested, as business of importance will be laid before the Committee.

The following named persons constitute the Committee:

J. W. LINGENFELTER,	J. P. REED,
M. HOLDERBAUM,	J. W. CRISMAN,
S. W. STATLER,	P. F. LEHMAN,

Advance Terms, &c.

Our subscribers should remember that if they want to get their paper at the advance rate of $1.50 per annum, they must pay now or within three months from the present date. Paying at the end of six months, or just before the year is up, is not paying in advance. The coming court will afford a good opportunity for advance paying subscribers to send in their money. We would also ask those who are in arrears to call and settle. Of course we do not refer to regular paying subscribers. We mean those who owe us for two, three or more years. We must pay our debts and find it impossible to do so without money. Friends, let not our appeal be in vain!

Drafting.

The War Department has determined to raise 600,000 troops in addition to those already in the field. To accomplish this object, the preliminary steps to a draft of the militia have been arranged, and unless the quota of the State is filled by the 15th inst., the proposed conscription will be certainly carried into effect. There may be some days of grace allowed, provided there is a fair prospect of raising the quota immediately by volunteers. Of this lenity, however, there is no certainty. Our people can safely conclude that the able-bodied portion of male citizens between the ages of 18 and 45 will be more than decimated, before the new calls for troops are filled. Every third man, we think, will be compelled to shoulder a musket. Is it not reasonable, then, that people who are in circumstances to leave their homes, should prefer to volunteer? We could never find it in our heart to ask any man to enlist, whom we believed to be pecuniarily and relatively in the same position as ourself. But there are those who need not sacrifice their earthly all in going to war. There are single men and wealthy men enough in Bedford county to fill our quota. Let these come forward and volunteer, the first, because they have no families dependent upon their daily labor for support, the other to show their gratitude to the Government under which they have attained to riches and prosperity. Is Bedford county to be disgraced with a draft? Are there not enough of the two classes to which we have referred, who will come forward to prevent this disgrace? Come, patriotic young men! Come, you who can afford to volunteer! Yours is the duty to prevent the humiliation which conscription must bring upon the patriotism of the county, as well as the distress and want which must follow the drafting of those upon whose labor and presence at home, alone depend the subsistence of hundreds and thousands in reduced and precarious circumstances. A dozen volunteers from each election district in the county, in addition to those already raised, will be more than enough to do away with the necessity of the draft. Let every township and borough furnish its quota of ten or a dozen volunteers, let them concentrate at Bedford, form themselves into companies, elect their officers, and, if need be, let them be subsisted, whilst in rendezvous here, at the expense of the county, and we will guaranty that Bedford county will not only escape the draft, but will be honored, in all coming time, for the patriotism and gallantry of her citizen soldiers. Who will be first to carry our suggestion into effect?

Governor Curtin.

His Excellency, Gov. Curtin, left the Springs on the 10th inst., for Harrisburg, we are glad to hear, considerably improved in health. In the discharge of our duty as a Democratic editor, we have had occasion to review Gov. Curtin's political doctrines with some severity, and we cannot bate one jot or tittle of what we have said in this respect; but candor compels us to admit (and we do so most cheerfully) that the Governor has done some acts during his administration, for which he deserves and shall have our approbation. Had the Governors of other States possessed half the energy displayed by Gov. Curtin, and had the Administration at Washington entertained the proper view of the magnitude of the rebellion, the fate of our beloved country would not now be trembling in the balance. Had other State Executives resisted the pressure of radical abolitionists, as we are informed Gov. Curtin has done, there would now be troops of friendly, sympathising Union men, instead of bands of fierce and infuriated guerillas, gathering around our armies in the South. Comparatively, therefore, Mr. Curtin deserves praise, for his energy in the raising of troops and his conservatism in refusing to become a tool in the hands of the radicals. Like Senator Cowan, our State Executive has drawn upon his devoted head the execration of the fanatics and fools of the Greely and Beecher school, and, therefore, it becomes the duty of conservatives to applaud and encourage him in the course he is pursuing. Only let him remain firm against their machinations and the conservative people of the State will rally around him and sustain him in every peril.

RECRUITING.—Never since the war began has the raising of volunteer companies been attended with such signal success as during the past week. We have heard of whole companies being enlisted in a single day, and one of the companies raised in this county (Capt. Bobb's) overran the maximum number. We are perfectly safe in estimating the number of volunteers at present enrolled in this county at between 400 and 500. The following officers have raised and are engaged in raising companies: Captain Bobb, company full and gone to Camp Curtin; Capt. S. B. Tate, seventy men; Capt. S. G. Statler, had forty men when last heard from; Capt. Dickerhoof, 40; Capt. May, 30; Lieut. Hudson, 20 men and gone to Camp Curtin. In addition to these, Captain Josiah Baughman, of Bloody Run, is raising a company, which we have no doubt will be a perfect success. There is also a Cavalry company being formed in Morrison's Cove, and we presume that there are other officers recruiting in this county of whose operations we have not heard. From these indications it will be seen that we can easily raise our quota of the 600,000 men without drafting, if the Government will but give us a little more time. Meanwhile we would warn our citizens not to enlist with recruiting officers from other counties. During the last ten days Blair and Huntingdon counties have drawn upon us for at least fifty men. This is all wrong and must be prevented in the future.

ABOLITION NOMINATION.—The Abolition Congressional Conference for this district, met at McIlwain's tavern, in Fulton co., on the 7th inst., and on the ninth ballot nominated Edward McPherson, the present member, for re-election. The usual bargain and sale were made before the nomination was effected. McPherson is a straight-out Abolitionist, having voted for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia and supported all of the radical measures introduced into Congress. He is under the thumb of that grim old apostle of Abolitionism, Thaddeus Stevens, and does his bidding in every thing. If the people want the slaves of the South let loose on the North, they can do no better than vote for Ed. McPherson.

LOST.—On Friday evening, 8th inst., between Patterson's lane, on the Hollidaysburg turnpike, and Bedford, or between the Hollidaysburg bridge and Ritchey's mill, a Lady's Morocco Reticule, containing bracelets, ring, porte-monae, kid gloves, &c.

The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.

MAJ. FILLER.—Maj. John H. Filler, of the 55th Pa. Vols., arrived here, a few days ago, on a visit to his family.

☞Those two excellent Democratic papers, the Chambersburg Times and Valley Spirit, have been consolidated under the proprietorship of Messrs. Keyser, Hamsher & Kennedy. We have no doubt that the new paper will prove a most able and interesting journal.

DEATH IN CAPT. RYCE'S CO.—Jacob G. Flegle, of Capt. Ryce's company, 76th regiment Pa. Vols., and late of this county, died, a few days ago, at Hilton Head, of typhoid fever. Poor Flegle was a good soldier, and his death will prove a loss to his company, but, alas! a greater, sadder loss to that little family in the mountain home, which shall never see his face again.

☞Morton McMichael, a leader of the late Republican party, declared in a speech at Lancaster, a few days ago, that there are but two parties at present, the Abolition and the Democratic party. The people must choose between the two.

☞The Democratic State Committee has imposed some important duties upon our county committee. See proceedings.

Discouraging Enlistments.

If there are any persons in this State disposed so far to sympathize with rebellion as to discourage enlistments, we desire to call their attention to an act of the Legislature of 1861, which, among other things, provides that "if any person or persons belonging to or residing within this State shall endeavor to persuade any person or persons from entering the service of this State or the United States, or from joining any volunteer company or association of this State, about being mustered into service, or shall use threats or persuasion, or offer any bribe, or hold out any hope of reward, with like intent to induce any person or persons to abandon said service, or withdraw from any volunteer company or association already organized under the laws of this Commonwealth for that purpose, every person so offending, and being legally convicted thereof, shall be sentenced to undergo solitary imprisonment in the penitentiary, at hard labor, for a term not exceeding ten years, and be fined in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both, at the discretion of the court."

Organization of the Democratic State Central Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29, 1862.

At a meeting of the State Central Committee, held at the Merchants' Hotel, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, July 29th, 1862, a permanent organization was effected by the Hon. Francis W. Hughes, of Schuylkill county, Chairman of said Committee, calling the Committee to order.

George de B. Keim, Esq., of Schuylkill county, and Col. Robert Crane, of Clinton county, were elected Secretaries of said Committee.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Committee adopt such means as he may be able to command to effect an organization of the Democratic party in the several counties of this State, through the several county committees, by the organization of a central club for each county at the county town or chief town in such county in the several school districts of said county, which shall communicate with the central club, and such club shall communicate with this committee, and through which this committee shall afford such assistance in the propagation of the principles of our party as it shall have the power to do.

Resolved, That the Chairman call upon the loyal men of Pennsylvania, through the Democratic Standing Committees of the several counties, to meet in the several cities to be designated by the said Standing Committees respectively, on the 17th of September next, to celebrate that day as the anniversary of the day of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States.

A Terrible Calamity.

The steamer Golden Gate, which left San Francisco on the 21st of July, for Panama, with 250 passengers and $1,014,000 for New York, and $270,000 for England, was burnt at sea when six days out, (on the 27th) and one hundred and eighty or two hundred lives were lost, and all the treasure. A large number of the passengers were from New York.

HEAR AN ABOLITIONIST!—The Boston Post says, on last Wednesday Wendell Phillips, one of the notorious abolition leaders, used the following treasonable language, in that city:

"The Government wants three hundred thousand men; we must say to them, 'You cannot have a man or a dollar until you proclaim a policy.' That will open the eyes of the President and the Cabinet to the true sentiments of the North. Fremont has been degraded by the border States; but let us hope that like Charles the Second, he may die on his rightful throne."

That's the sort of support President Lincoln and the country gets from Emanciptionists!

RAM ARKANSAS DESTROYED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10—The following is from the Petersburg (Va.,) Daily Express of yesterday:—

RICHMOND, Aug 10.—A despatch from Gen. Van Dorn, to Secretary Mallory, states that the Confederate Ram Arkansas, Lieut. Stephens commanding, has been destroyed.

She left Vicksburg on Monday, to co-operate in the attack on Baton Rouge After passing Bayou Sara her machinery became deranged, and, while attempting to adjust it, several of the enemy's gun-boats attacked her.

After a gallant resistance, she was abandoned and blown up. Her officers and men reached the shore in safety.

BATTLE BETWEEN GEN. BANKS AND STONEWALL JACKSON.

Gen. Geary Loses an Arm.

A SEVERE BATTLE.

NEW YORK, August 10.—The following despatch has been received by the Tribune:—

HEAD-QUARTERS, 6 MILES BELOW CULPEPPER, August 10, 1862.

A battle was fought yesterday between Gen. Banks and Stonewall Jackson.

Gen. Bayard of General McDowell's corps, with his cavalry brigade, had been engaged before in the extreme advance, near the Rapidan river, in skirmishing and manœuvering, taking some prisoners, and ending with a slight loss, baffling the efforts of a large force to surround and cut him off.

Yesterday morning he was engaged for some hours before Gen. Banks came up, and with four regiments of cavalry, the First Pennsylvania, First Main and First Rhode Island, delayed and embarrassed the enemy's advance.

The Rebels, under Jackson and Ewell, had crossed the Rapidan, in force, and their advance guard, 15,000 strong, was attacked by Gen. Banks, yesterday afternoon, about six miles south of Culpepper Court House.

The fight was almost wholly with artillery at first but the infantry became engaged about six o'clock, and a determined and bloody contest followed.

Gen. Banks' right wing under General Williams, suffered severely.

The Rebel position was in the woods, while to cross an open ground [illegible]

It was not till obout 6 o'clock that it became evident that the rebels were attacking us in force. Previous to that there had been rather desultory cannonading.

The whole Rebel force suddenly attacked us in overwhelming numbers at all points. Nearly all their regiments had full ranks.

At 7½ o'clock General Pope arrived on the field from Culpepper, accompanied by General McDowell, with a part of McDowell's Corps.

The battle was then substantially over, Gen. Banks holding the ground that he had occupied at the beginning.

After the arrival of General Pope there was an artillery contest, continuing at intervals till nearly twelve o'clock. The night was unusually clear, and the moon full.

The Rebels planted a battery against McDowell's centre, where Gens. Pope and Banks were, bringing both of them under fire. The Generals and their staff were so near the Rebel lines, being actually in front of their own lines that a sudden charge of the Rebel cavalry was made from the woods, a quarter of a mile off, apparently with a view to capture them.

The attempt was repelled by a vigorous fire from McDowell's troops, and the Generals and their staffs left the field under a cross-fire from the Rebels and their own troops.

The fire of the Rebel batteries was afterwards silenced.

General Pope, on arriving, sent fresh troops to the front to take the place of General Banks' exhausted columns.

The enemy did not renew the attack, except by artillery.

Our troops were under arms, and in position all night.

General Banks was on the field throughout the action, and constantly under fire. His handling of his troops, and personal gallantry, is highly praised by his officers.

The bravery and good conduct of the troops were conspicuous during a large part of the fight. When overpowered by numbers, some of the regiments retreated in disorder.

Col. Knipe, of the Forty-sixth Pennsylvania, is dangerously wounded.

Lieutenant Colonel Selfridge was severely wounded.

Major Mathers had his arm amputated.

Adjutant Boyd was severely wounded, (all of the Forty-sixth Pennsylvania.)

Col. Donnelly, of the Twenty-eighth New York was fatally wounded: Lieut. Col. Brown had his arm amputated; Major Cook was killed —both are of the Twenty-eighth New York.

Col. Chapman, of the Fifth Connecticut, was wounded and taken prisoner.

Lieut. Col. Stone, of the same regiment, was killed.

Major Blake, of the same regiment, was wounded and taken prisoner.

Major Savage, of the Twentieth Massachusetts, is probably killed. He was left on the field in a dying condition. Capt. Abbot, of the same Regiment, was killed.

General Banks was rather severely hurt by an accident. A cavalry trooper ran against him, and he was struck heavily in the side. Nevertheless, he remained on the field, and is on duty this morning with his command.

Gen. Geary was wounded and has had an arm amputated.

Gen. Augur is severely wounded. Major Pelouze, Gen. Banks' Adjutant, took command of a hesitating regiment and gallantly led it through a galling fire. He received two shots, and is severely but not dangerously wounded in the side.

Capt. Williams is missing. Capt. Goodwin is also missing. Capt. Quincy was taken prisoner. Surgeon Leland was wounded. Lieut. Oakly was wounded seriously. Lieut. Austin and Lieut. Buckman, of the First New Jersey Cavalry were wounded. No other officers in that Regiment were hurt.

Lieutenant Hopkins, of the Seventh Ohio, was wounded.

Col. Ruggles, chief of the staff to General Pope, had his horse shot under him. Two of General Pope's body-guard were killed.

Col Morgan, of Pope's staff, and Major Perkins, of Gen. Banks' staff, both received bullets through their hats.

The second Massachusetts Regiment was in the hardest of the fight, and suffered severely.

The Fifth Connecticut, Twenty-seventh Indiana and Forty-sixth Pennsylvania, were badly cut up. Lieut. Ramsey, of General Banks' staff, had his horse shot under him.

Gen. Winder, of the Rebel forces, was wounded. The losses are very heavy on both sides, and it is supposed that not less than 2000 or 3000 were killed and wounded or are missing on each side. Some prisoners were taken on both sides.

Jackson and Ewell were both present in the battle.

Reinforcements to the amount of 18,000 men reached the rebels last night, at about the same time that ours arrived.

Skirmishing in front is going on this morning, but the troops on both sides are so much exhausted by fatigue and the intense heat that no serious encounter is expected to take place to-day.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Reports were bro't into Culpepper on Friday, of the crossing of the Rapidan by the Rebels in force.

It is said by a passenger who came from the vicinity of Waterloo to-day, that General Banks' column, which was in the advance, was attacked by General Ewell in superior numbers.

The struggle continued all day yesterday, and may at any time be renewed.

The loss is severe on both sides. A number of our wounded have been brought to Culpepper.

No details of the battle have been officially received. It is represented that Generals Prince, Auger and Geary were wounded

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

Order from the War Department to prevent the Evasion of Military Duty—Writ of Habeas Corpus Suspended.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The following highly important order has just been issued from the War Department:—

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON CITY, August 8, 1862.

Order to Prevent the Evasion of Military Duty and the Suppression of Disloyal Practices.

First—By direction of the President of the United States, it is hereby ordered that, until further orders, no citizen liable to be drafted into the militia shall be allowed to go to a foreign country, and all Marshals, Deputy Marshals and military officers of the United States are directed, and all police authorities, especially at the ports of the United States of the seaboard and on the frontier, are requested to [illegible] and they are hereby authorized and directed to arrest and return any person or persons about to depart from the United States in violation of this order, and to report to Major L. C. Turner, Judge Advocate, at Washington city, for further instructions respecting the person or persons so arrested and detained.

Second—Any person liable to draft who shall absent himself from his country or State before such draft is made, will be arrested by any Provost Marshal or other United States or State officers, wherever he may be found within the jurisdiction of the United States, and conveyed to the nearest military post or depot, and placed on military duty for the term of the draft, and the expense of his own arrest and conveyance to such post, shall be deducted from his pay.

Third—The writ of habeas corpus is hereby suspended in respect to all persons so arrested and detained, and in respect to all persons arrested for disloyal practice.

[Signed] E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

Order Authorizing Arrests of Persons Discouraging Enlistments.

WAR DEPARTMENT, August 8, 1862.

ORDERED:

First—That all United States Marshals and Superintendents or Chiefs of Police of any town, city, or district, be and they are hereby authorized and directed to arrest and imprison any person or persons who may be engaged by act, speech or writing, in discouraging volunteer enlistments, or in any way giving aid and comfort to the enemy, or in any other disloyal practice against the United States.

Second—That an immediate report be made to Major L. C. Turner, Judge Advocate, in order that such persons may be tried before a Military Commission.

Third—The expenses of such arrests and imprisonment will be certified to the Chief Clerk of the War Department for settlement and payment.

[Signed] E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

The Draft and Heads of Families.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, referring to the proposed draft of the militia, remarks:

Reference must be had to the circumstances of the parties upon whom the lot may fall, as in France and other European countries; else we shall be but rushing from one evil into another. For an example, it would not be wise to take away the head of a family, if the family are to be left without the means of support. In that case we should have our almshouses filled up in a week, and all our public charities taxed beyond our abilities to endure.

It does not follow from this that said head of a family should be exempt. He owes the State service just as much as other people, and the service, if it can be discharged personally, must be discharged by proxy—or, as it is commonly called, by a "substitute." Now, "substitutes," no doubt, will be abundant enough, but the rates at which they will value their services, as like as not, will be at a figure quite beyond the ability of any but the wealthy to command them. It is suggested that, in this matter, for the good of all those concerned, that the government itself should fix the value of substitutes, as is the case in France. There are many other suggestions of a similar character entitled to careful consideration, and it is understood that a committee of citizens will proceed to Washington in the course of a day or two to see if the government cannot be prevailed upon to adopt them, and issue an order accordingly. Some of the gentlemen composing the committee have been long resident abroad, and, as they are perfectly familiar with the "drafting" machinery there, they are well qualified to speak and advise understandingly on the subject.

JOHN W. FORNEY—THE RETIREMENT OF THE OLD RAT.—Said this ingrate at a meeting the other night, "Retired from political life, I have devoted myself to the nation."

Precious hypocrite! When Forney retired from political life, it must have been like the old rat in the fable: "My dear children," said the old rat to his young ones, "the infirmities of age are pressing so heavily upon me, that I have determined to dedicate the short remainder of my days to mortification and penance in a narrow and lonely hole which I have lately discovered; but let me not interfere with your enjoyments; youth is the season for pleasure. Be happy, therefore, and only obey my last injunction—never to come near me in my retreat. God bless you all." Deeply affected, sniveling audibly, and wiping his paternal eyes with his tail, the old rat withdrew, and was seen no more for several days, when his youngest daughter, moved rather by affection than curiosity, stole to his cell of mortification, which turned out to be a hole made by his own teeth in an enormous Cheshire cheese.

The retirement from political life of John W. Forney!—ha! ha! ha! Office of Clerk of the Senate—great contract broker—and lobby agent. Here is the Cheshire cheese, and the cells of mortification into which the old rat has retired to do penance for his many sins. He simply asks the prayers of the faithful. Let them prey.

Newark Journal.

Measles are prostrating the Volunteers by hundreds, the hospitals are crowded with them. Soldiers, be warned in time. AYER'S PILLS.

ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Billious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness or Constipation. As a Dinner Pill they are both agreeable and effectual.

PRICE 25 CENTS PER BOX. OR FIVE BOXES FOR $1.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOLOREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well: but with the pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Price $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles in package, $5.

--DIED--

JORDAN.—On Thursday, the 7th inst., in the 35th year of her age, Mrs. MARIA LOUISA, wife of Hon. FRANCIS JORDAN, of this place.

The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church. She was an affectionate wife, a kind mother, a faithful friend, an humble christian. Her health had been feeble for many years, and, for a considerable time, she had not enjoyed the privileges of the sanctuary. She, perhaps, yielded too often to a morbid state of mind, the result of physical disorder, and confined herself to her home when intercourse with her friends, and especially the services of the Lord's House might have proved beneficial to her bodily and spiritual health.

During her last illness, which was of short continuance, she was patient and submissive to the will of God. At times despondent, she usually enjoyed a sense of her Savior's presence, and rejoiced in the hope of eternal life. When the time of her departure was near at hand, she said it was sweet to die. Though she regretted to leave dear friends behind her, she believed it would be better to depart and be with Christ. With the name of JESUS on her lips, the last faint utterance heard by those who watched beside her bed, she exchanged the sick chamber for the everlasting habitation. It was a pleasing coincidence, as remarked at the funeral of our deceased friend, that when a christian stranger near by, and within her hearing, was singing, "I would not live alway," to the tune, "There is rest for the weary," she was passing through the valley of death to her eternal home, where the weary are at rest:

Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Savior and brethren transported to greet;
While the anthems of pleasure unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

Supplement to the ordinance for the preventing of swine from running at large in the borough of Bedford, passed July 21, 1856.

SEC. 1. It is hereby enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Bedford, That no swine, either large or small, shall run at large in any of the alleys, streets, or public places, within the limits of the borough of Bedford after the 16th of August, 1862 And the High Constable of said borough is hereby authorized to pen up any swine that he may find running at large within said limits. The owner may reclaim such property upon the payment of one dollar fine for each head penned up—one half of which amount shall go to the High Constable in consideration of three written notices which he shall post up in some public places in said borough, and the balance shall go to the borough of Bedford.

SEC. 2. In case any such swine be not reclaimed within two days after such notice be given, the same shall be sold at public sale by the High Constable, after which sale the owner can redeem them by paying the purchaser thereof 20 per cent. more than the amount paid the High Constable by said purchaser within three days after said purchase. And in case any swine thus sold be not redeemed the amount received from such sale or sales shall go to the Treasury of the borough, the High Constable retaining the sum of one dollar for his services.

SEC. 3. In case any swine be demanded by the owner, before the High Constable has time to give notice, the owner shall pay him 25 cents for each head in his custody, which amount shall be allowed the High Constable for his trouble, and—

SEC. 4. So much of the ordinance to which this is a supplement, as is hereby altered, or supplied, is hereby repealed.

Approved August 12, 1862.

GREAT BOOK IN PRESS.

THRILLING INCIDENTS OF THE GREAT REBELLION;

OR,

The Heroism of our Soldiers & Sailors.

ILLUSTRATED.

1 vol., large 12mo. Price, $1.25.

The critics and the public are right in predicting that this will surpass, in graphic narrative, exciting interest, and extensive popularity, all other histories of the War for the Union. Its theme will be the heroic daring, patient suffering, and hairbreadth escapes of our soldiers and sailors, and its incidents will form the theme of conversation at innumerable firesides for years to come. It will contain, in addition to its stirring details, the philosophical Analysis of the Causes of the War, by JOHN LOTHROP MOTLEY, LL. D., Author of "The Rise of the Dutch Republic," etc., the dates of all the important events from John Brown raid, and an accurate and revised account of the principle battles, with engravings.

One third the proceeds of all Subscriptions sent direct to us will be given for the Relief of Disabled Soldiers, and all persons who wish a copy of the work, and also to benefit the soldiers, should send their name and address at once. Also, any officer or private or person in any section of the country, having knowledge of a heroic act or stirring incident, will oblige us by sending us an account of it

BOOKSELLERS, POSTMASTERS, and CANVASSING AGENTS will be furnished with a Sub-cription Prospectus, on application to the Publishers.

☞A liberal commission given to soldiers desiring to act as agents in taking subscription.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND.
ALWAY REAY.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Long marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the Soldier must endure, MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a single pot of this ALL HEALING and COOLING Salve will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for

Sabre Cuts and Gunshot Wounds,

It stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals th most frightful wounds.

Wives and Sisters of our Volunteers.

You cannot put into the Knapsack of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this Extraordinary Military Salve.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized with most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGH and SUFFOCATING HOARSENESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted. a few Pills taken night and morning, and the Ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing and DANGEROUS COUGH. Therefore we say to the whole Army,

Soldiers Attention!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the Armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the SOLDIER IN CAMP,

Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Scurvy, Sores & Scrofulous Eruptions,

all disappear like a charm before these PILLS and OINTMENT, and now while the cry rings through out the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find a sure remedy there for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cts, and $1 each.

☞There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

ENTIRELY VEGETABLE;

NO ALCOHOLIC PREPARATION!

A PURE TONIC MEDICINE.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED

German Bitters,

PREPARED BY

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, Phil'a., Pa.

WILL EFFECTUALLY CURE

LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE

Chronic or nervous debility, diseases of the kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fulness, or blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, fulness or weight in the Stomach, sour Eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, swimming of the head hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

And will positively prevent YELLOW FEVER, BILLIOUS FEVER, &c,

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL, OR BAD WHISKEY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN
PHYSICIANS,
AND CITIZENS,

Testifying, of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If you do, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

Philadelphia, June 23, 1861.

From the Rev. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe, and valuable preparation. In some cases it fail to but usually I doubt not it will be very h those who suffer from the above cause.

Yours, very respectfully, JOSEPH H. KENNARD.

Dec. 24.

Eighth, below Coates st., PHILADELPHIA.

From the wife of ALDERMAN WUNDER.

Germantown, June 1, 1861.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—SIR:—It gave me pleasure to give you a certificate, testifying two years ago, what Hoofland's German Bitters had done for me. I am now perfectly restored of all those diseases your medicine professedly to cure, viz:—Dyspepsia, Chronic debility, diseases of the Kidneys, &c., and Nervous prostration, the influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation I have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown and is now sold in every Drug store, and in most of the Grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above disease. Respectfully,

HANNAH WUNDER.
